THE BUCKEYE

Our School . . .

. . . has left us many pleasant and wonderful memories. Our school has been more than just a building; it has been a home for gaining knowledge.

Faculty

We have our ADMINISTRATION, FACULTY, and Parents to thank for the education we have gained. If it were not for their experience, faithfulness, and their patience, we would not be the well-informed and educated Seniors that we are.

Our School . . .

Leadership, cooperation, sportsmanship, and service are the goals of the students participating in extracurricular activities.

Our achievements in these areas are symbolized by the proud way in which we wear our uniforms.

All Around M.V.H.S.

Win or lose, our student body is always there supporting the team.

What happens when the teacher's back is turned?

Even the classes can be fun!

Turn-About Day

A new experience for the students and faculty of MVHS was TURN-ABOUT DAY which was held Friday, January 19, before Homecoming.

Teachers, secretaries and the principal were selected by the students from their various classes. These students relieved the teachers of their classroom duties and also supervised the study hall. The teachers had the opportunity to observe the classes.

Pat Smith, secretary, is typing the daily attendance record. Terry Davis, assistant secretary, is counting money from the sale of lunch tickets.

Steve Brewer, Assistant Principal, is busy writing detention slips.

Rusty Whistler, Principal for the day, is down to business checking the curriculum for next year.

OUR SCHOOL is a winner!

Our team was the runner-up in the Darke County Tournament. It was able to overcome the 5th ranked team in the state (Simon-Kenton) in the Dayton Class A Tournament. Then we met head-on with the 17th ranked team (Gratis) in the semi-finals. Our boys were too exhausted to cope with their fast breaks and forward presses; but they did a marvelous job of keeping within 2 or 3 points until the last few seconds of the game when we fell behind.

Our team was the winner of the Ansonia Christmas Holiday Tournament. We are proud of our team's 14 wins and 9 losses.

'63 Plays

"THE VALLEY of GHOSTS"

A mystery comedy enchanted the audience by its ghostly appearance on October 31, 1962 in the school gymnasium.

The main characters in the play were summoned to meet at Lucille Evans' house for the reading of her will.

The reading of the will was delayed because of a monster, and an escaped lunatic. They were hired to drive the heirs away by Jonathan Black, the lawyer, who would inherit the money if the heirs did not spend at least one night in the old house.

CAST

Patty McEldowney	Wynonia Dunn
Marilyn Maloy	Janet Conrad
Barbara Reser	Judy Lorton
Paul Robinson	Dale Burris
Rodney Bothast	Jack Beam
Everett Garland	Ed Harless

Mr. Jonathan Black, the lawyer, (Dale Burris) and heirs gathered for the reading of the will.

Pete (Rodney Bothast) got alarmed when he heard several screams.

Mrs. Scott, the escaped lunatic, (Barbara Reser) made Pete disappear; she wanted the people to leave the haunted house.

The monster (Everett Garland) was in pursuit of Lily Voilet (Marilyn Maloy).

Minnie Strange (Wynonia Dunn), a very superstitious person, predicted that "spirits" and "ghosts" would haunt Sally Ann (Janet Conrad) the rest of her life.

Senior Class Trip

Everyone is eager to board the bus for our trip to Washington, D.C.

Move quickly!!! At Piqua, the boys formed a line to get the baggage off the bus in a hurry.

After an hour-and-a-half layover in Cincinnati, we took off over the Allegheny Mountains to Washington.

Lazy students!!! After walking up 50 flights of steps in the Washington Monument, these students are waiting to take the elevator down.

Packed and ready. We were a sad group as we left the Harrington Hotel for Mt. Vernon on our last tour of the trip.

Hurry and wait!!! Impatiently we relaxed as we waited for the B & O at the depot in Washington.

Homeward bound. Euchre was the favorite pastime among all the students.

Favorites

Our School . . .

. . . is the greatest contributor to learning and progress. We are encouraged to do our best in whatever we attempt.

Our school enables us to get acquainted with the many different personalities of students and faculty. We are encouraged to be a friend, to have a friend.

We find special FAVORITES among our fellow classmates. During the past twelve years of school the favorites have become a symbol of beauty in our academic and social activities.

Homecoming '63

Am I really the 1963 Homecoming Queen?

Everyone enjoyed the dance at the Union City Building after the ballgame.

Candidates discussed whether corsages should be worn at the waist or on the wrist.

Sharon Kochersperger, the '62 Homecoming Queen, presented red roses to Karen at halftime ceremonies.

Sweethearts

FFA and FHA Sweethearts must possess certain qualities. They must be in the FFA or FHA organization; be raised on a farm; be sympathetic to the farm effort, and must have a deep love of farm life. Academically, they are required to have maintained a "B" average.

Susie is past-president of FHA. She has held the offices of president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer during her six years in 4-H. Her hobby is grooming her ponies and horses for the Darke County Fair.

Jim, a member of the Ft. Recovery chapter of the FFA for three years, and the M.V. chapter his senior year, has scored high on judging teams at both schools. He lives on a farm and has chickens and hogs as one of his agriculture projects.

Jailbird!!! Earl Howell was captured and thrown into jail by his fellow classmates.

Crystal Gazer. Carol Parks sees all, knows all, as she looks into Marcia Zumbrun's future.

High school students, as well as junior high students, enjoyed the record hop.

Julie Saintgnon and Shearl Pitman were crowned king and queen of the Sophomore Carnival by Terry Davis and Joe Snyder, last year's queen and king.

Junior-Senior Prom

The program was highlighted by impromptu talks by Mr. Shelton, "April Storms"; Mrs. McCullough, "The End of the Rainbow"; Mrs. Juett, "The Spring Cloud's Silver Lining"; Mr. Hillman, "Reflections in the Pool"; and Mr. Royer gave the Invocation.

As Carolyn Schlamb, Ronnie Keller, Shelba Schlosser, and Steve Hampshire enter the bridge, they are enchanted by the spring garden.

The punch bowl was the favorite attraction of the Prom. Karen Scholl fills Jim Gilbert's cup while others watch.

"It's Spring Again"

A banquet at 6:30 began our Junior-Senior Prom. "It's Spring Again."

Our gymnasium was transformed into a beautiful spring garden. The garden gate and the beautiful bridge were abundant with white carnations. A fountain of flowing water adorned one of the corners. The garden was decorated in lavender and white - the senior class colors. Everyone was in a dream.

As the sweet music of "Good Night, Sweetheart" echoed throughout the gymnasium, we all departed to watch "In Search of the Castaways" at the Grand Theatre. The post-prom was concluded with an early-morning breakfast at the Elk's Club. At approximately 5 a.m. we all went wearily, but happily, home.

Everyone enjoyed dancing to the sweet music played by Bob Marshall's Band.

Sharon Grimes, Jim Hipple, Judy Lorton, and Richard Grimes secluded themselves at a corner table.

What's this for??? Carolyn Beasley, followed by her date - Gary Shomber, disposes her show ticket.

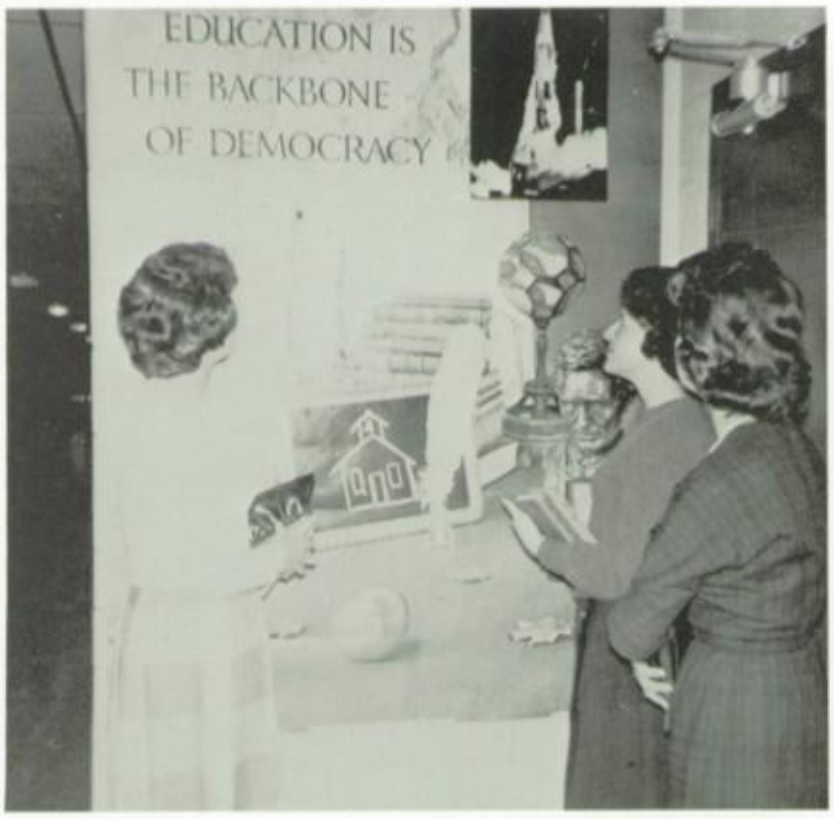
Classes

Our School . . .

. . . has been important in our daily lives. Our school helps us determine truths and maintain a broad outlook on life.

Our CLASSES help make our school a pleasant place to work and play. The classrooms buzz with work, and the extracurricular activities provide the pleasure.

A glance



Wanda, Barbara, and Julie stop to admire the poster entitled "Education is the Backbone to Democracy" during National Education Week.

Mr. Amburgey demonstrates how to bend metal with the handsaw to Douglas, David, and Dick in his Industrial Arts class.

Bill Brown and Ronald Elliott, supervised by Mr. Patrick, are using the Radial Arm Saw while making a bunk feeder.

Wanda, Vickie, Diane, Toni, and Mary show that girls are not afraid to cut into frogs. The Sophomore Biology students have been dissecting frogs. They use some of the parts of the frog for their science projects.

Students have found the Library a reliable place to find information needed for their reports.

Carpenters??? Barbara, Sandy, and Marilyn refinish an old chair in Home Economics III. The Junior and Senior girls enjoyed their unit on Home Decorating which included painting the kitchen and making curtains.
